CASSIE ROBERTS.

Defendant

On December 11, 2013, defendant Cassie Roberts was released on a $150,000 unsecured bond to reside in the third party custodian at her home in Richmond. Three viable sureties signed onto the bond. As a condition of release, Ms. Roberts was placed on electronic monitoring. She is permitted to leave her residence for court appearances, legal visits, medical and treatment appointments, childcare purposes, and for employment purposes as approved by pretrial services. Ms. Roberts has been in compliance with all her conditions of release. She now requests that the Court add a condition of release so that she is permitted to leave her home during the day between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. as long as she obtains the permission of pretrial services in advance. Ms. Roberts has an infant son, and in anticipation of the custodial sentence she has agreed to serve, she would like to get her affairs in order and spend time out of the house with her son before she goes into custody. This condition is in addition to the conditions already

1 present that permit her to leave her residence for the aforementioned purposes.

2 Pretrial services officer Silvio Lugo does not oppose this modification. The government
3 also does not oppose this modification.
